The Song of the Cradle.

Bye, bye! Hope rises high;
There's a sweet little cradle hung up in the sky;
A dear little life that is coming to bless;
Two soft chubby hands that will pat and caress;
A pure little soul winging down from above;
A darling to care for, a baby to love.

One of the grandest agencies which enlightened Science has discovered to relieve motherhood from excessive suffering is the "Favorite Prescription" devised by Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y.

This wonderful "Prescription" imbues the entire nervous system with natural, healthy vitality; gives elastic vigor to the delicate organism specially concerned in motherhood, and makes the coming of baby entirely free from danger and almost free from pain.

"I wish to state that I have used Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription with very good results," writes Mrs. Katie M. Annis, of Hudson, New Hampshire. "Had been in poor health for over four years and had been twice in the hospital. My husband brought some of your 'Favorite Prescription,' and it has carried me easily through my last two confinements. We are now blessed with two healthy children, and I am sure your medicine has done me more good than all the other treatment I have ever received."

BAD HEADACHES generally arise from bad stomachs. Foul breath, bitter taste, coated tongue, sour eructations or belching of gas, are common symptoms though not all present in every case. To cure, take small doses, only one or two each day, of old Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, the Original Little Liver Pills, first put up by him over 40 years ago. One or two a laxative, three or four cathartic.

NIP IT IN THE BUD.

First Appearance of Dandruff a Forerunner of Future Baldness.

That such is the case has been conclusively proven by scientific research. Prof. Unna, the noted European skin specialist, declares that dandruff is the burrowed-up cuticle of the scalp, caused by parasites destroying the vitality in the hair bulb. The hair becomes lifeless, and, in time, falls out. This can be prevented.

Newbro's Herpicide kills this dandruff germ, and restores the hair to its natural softness and abundancy.

Herpicide is now used by thousands of people—all satisfied that it is the most wonderful hair preparation on the market to-day.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Two Dyspeptics

If you are too fat it is because your food turns to fat instead of muscle—strength. If you are too lean the fat producing foods that you eat are not properly digested and assimilated.

Lean, thin, stringy people do not have enough Pepsin in the stomach, while fat people have too much Bile in the and not enough Pancreatine.

Kodol
Dyspepsia Cure

contains all the digestive juices that are found in a healthy stomach, and in exactly those proportions necessary to enable the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all foods that may be eaten. Kodol is not only a perfect digestant, but it is a reconstructive, tissue building tonic as well. Kodol cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Palpitation of the Heart and Constipation. You will like it.

Digests What You Eat

Rests the stomach, rebuilds the tissues and gives firm flesh.

Dollar bottle holds 2½ times as much as the trial, or 50 cent size. Prepared at the Laboratory of E. O. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, U.S.A.

Murder Mystery.

The Wilkesbarre, Pa., authorities are searching for the missing head of a body found yesterday morning in an effort to solve the first murder mystery of that kind which has baffled the police of that place in sometime. The body, that of a well-developed man, was found near Cork lane, seven miles from Wilkesbarre, yesterday morning, and the police have many reasons for believing the murdered man was a victim of the Black Hand Society, which has been terrorizing Italians of Pittston and vicinity for some time. The body looks like that of an Italian, and the murder was clearly not for robbery, as seven dollars, some cigars, a 32-caliber revolver and a couple of gold rings were in the pockets, but there was no scrap of paper or anything else which might lead to identification. The head had not been hacked off, as the cut about the neck was as clean as if made with a sharp butcher knife. The body was placed prominently on a culm bank near the roadside, and was discovered by the first workmen going to the Cork and Bottle Colliery. It had been placed there between 4 o'clock and daylight, as it rained until 4 o'clock, and the clothes were dry. The police believe that the head was thrown down one of the several mine openings in the vicinity and are now searching for it. For some time a reign of terror had existed among Italians in that vicinity. Numerous Black Hand Society letters have been received threatening death unless money was paid for protection. Several people who received the letters have moved away and others threatening with death are guarding themselves carefully. A few weeks ago Joseph Castilini, who defied the society, was murdered at midnight, being shot from ambush. Attempts were made on two others and it is believed that the present murder is the work of the same men.

Nan Patterson in New York.

Nan Patterson is back again in New York, having returned temporarily to the scenes of the most severe and trying period of her whole life. She is stopping in a downtown hotel, the name of which is not disclosed In an interview yesterday she declared that her short career in "The Romance of Panama," with which company she came off the road last week, has not been the finish of her stage life by long odds, and that she is now merely resting preparatory to a further venture. "I never realized that women could be so uncharitable," said the actress. "To say the least, it wasn't nice of them. Why, it has almost made me lose my faith in human nature. Those women were professing Christains, too, and yet they tried in every way to arouse prejudice against me. That is not a Christian spirit, as I understand it. If I had been turned into the gutter they would not have cared. They would not try to help or lift up one of their own sex who might be in direst trouble. Is it any wonder I am glad to get back to New York for a while? Those who may have seemed to be pursuing me in my trials were only doing their duty. The thousands of others supported me. That's why I bore it so well, but those women"—Nan shuddered—"they seemed all alike, to be governed by cruelty and inhumanity. I never thought much about those things before, but I've done a lot of thinking about it lately, I can tell you. I cannot understand why professed Christians forget the quality of mercy and of charity."

Plot to Blow Up Ship.

A dispatch to the London Telegraph from Toiko says that while the Japanese were conveying the surrendered battleship Orel some of the Russian officers and sailors behaved disgracefully. Capt. Yunick was lying in his bunk, seriously wounded. Ten engineers plotted to explode the ship's magazine. They fired a fuse under the magazine near the stern. When it was found by the Japanese a disorderly scene occurred. Eight of the ringleaders were immediately shot. This was the reason the Orel was taken to Maizuru instead of Sasebo, as was intended. The correspondent asserts that the reported barbarity of the Russians in throwing overboard their wounded is exaggerated. It was done without the knowledge of the officers. While the vessel was being taken to Japan, about twelve sailors, unable to bear their wounds cried to their comrades to save them from pain by killing them, and in the absence of Japanese escorts the Russians were thrown into the sea. The Japanese on board remonstrated, and the captain of the Orel was greatly agitated by the cruelty and mutiny of his crew. He apologized to the Japanese. His death thirty minutes before the Orel reached Maizuru was accelerated by these painful incidents.

Children Burned to Death.

Yesterday afternoon on the Strand, near New Hampshire avenue, Atlantic City, two children—one a lad of seven years and the other a child of four—were burned beyond recognition, and the remains were identified only by shreds of clothing. The elder of the victims was Ordney Delaney, son of O. J. Delaney, vice president and general manager of the Wharton Fisheries Company, of Philadelphia, and the other was William Jeffries, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Jeffries, a widow residing at Atlantic City. The children left their homes about 2 o'clock and took with them a hatchet with which they cut into a jetty on the beach. They were beneath the cedar brush, hidden from view, when the fire started. It burned for an hour before a squad of firemen came on the scene and used sand in smothering it. While turning over the ashes to stamp out the remaining sparks Foreman Stephany discovered one of the skulls, without any flesh on it, in the debris. Turning over the sand the charred remains were uncovered. It is supposed that the children started the fire in the cavity they dug into the jetty, and that it set fire to their clothing and smothered them.

Given $5,000 for a Broken Nose.

A jury in the Circuit Court, in Jersey City, yesterday gave a judgment for 5,000 damages to Freda Lippert, a young woman of Union Hill, against Charles L. Peters, the son of a wealthy brewer, for injuries alleged to have been sustained in an assault by Peters. Miss Lippert three years ago sued Peters for breach of promise, and got a verdict for $15,000 damages. The judgment was satisfied. Since then the pair seemed to have renewed their friendship, being on good terms until the incident on which the suit was based occurred. Miss Lippert alleged that while she and the defendant were in a music hall in Union Hill, Peters struck her in the face, and that a diamond ring on his finger made a cut on her face, and that her nose was broken. She claimed to have been permanently disfigured by the blow. Peters alleged that the young woman had a ring belonging to him and had refused to give it up. The plaintiff denied that she had any ring that was the property of Peters.

MONTAGUE AND MARTIN.

Sure Montague will dearly rue
The course on which he's startin
When he attacks the public acts
Of Senator Tom Martin.

There is no man in all the land
Can fill the place of Martin,
And he who tries, will with surprise
Behold his hopes departin.'

A little snake can never take
A big snake's skin or skin it,
But when 'tis shed, can poke his head
Most easily within it.

It can't be said an old Confed
He ever turned his back on.
Would this be true if said of you?
Come, tell me Andrew Jackson.

The men who gave their all to save
The rights of their old mother
Might well expect you'd not neglect
To act the part of brother.

They were too poor, in coach and four,
To give you an ovation,
But still they thought you could and ought
Give them consideration.

They were the boys that feared no noise
When war's loud tocsin sounded,
But when 'tis o'er, they find for sure
They still are being pounded,

You make a note they still can vote
If you have no objection,
So can their sons and friendly ones,
At primary election.

Torture of a Preacher.

The story of the torture of Rev. O. D. Moore, pastor of the Baptist church, of Harpersville, N. Y., will interest you. He says: "I suffered agonies, because of a persistent cough, resulting from the grip. I had to sleep sitting up in bed. I tried many remedies, without relief, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption Coughs and Colds, which entirely cured my cough, and saved me from consumption." A grand cure for diseased conditions of Throat and Lungs. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists; price 50c and $1.00, guaranteed, Trial bottle free.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

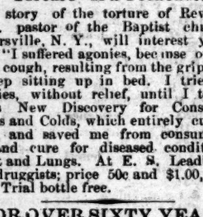
Sprained Ankle, Stiff Neck, Lame Shoulder.

These are three common ailments for which Chamberlain's Pain Balm is especially valuable. If promptly applied it will save you time, money and suffering when troubled with any of these ailments. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Quality vs. Quantity.

Hard muscles and strong body do not depend on the quantity of food you eat, but on its perfect digestion and proper assimilation. When you take Kodol Dyspesia Cure your system gets all the nourishment out of all the food you eat. It digests what you eat regardless of the condition of the stomach and conveys the nutrient properities to the blood and tissues. This builds up and strengthens the entire system. Kodol cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Belching, Sour Stomach, Weak Heart, etc. Sold by W. F. Creighton, 401 King street, and corner Queen and Patrick.

COMFORT SWING CHAIR.



Made entirely of metal and canvass. The material is light and firmly braced, finished in black enamel.

Alexandria Gazette AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

WEDNESDAY EVENING, JUNE 7, 1905.

THE SIGNIFICANCE of M. Delcasse's resignation after directing the foreign policy of France since June 28, 1898, thus beating the record of any French Minister of Foreign Affairs, is that Prime Minister Rouvier, who has temporarily taken over the foreign portfolio, and the rest of the Cabinet disapproved M. Delcasse's programme of reform in Morocco under French aupices—a measure which the Sultan has flatly rejected and which the present Cabinet believes, if put into execution, would bring about a conflict with Germany. Moreover, there are 350,000 German troops massed close to the French frontier, while France's only effective military ally, Russia, is for strategical purposes absolutely eliminated from the problem. Furthermore, Emperor William has for the last two years been greatly annoyed by M. Delcasse's policy aiming at the isolation of Germany and steadily increasing the friendship of France with England, Italy and Spain. M. Rouvier, with the majority of the French Parliament, feels that the situation can best be retrieved by a new man like M. Rouvier, who is a master hand at making acceptable, business-like transactions, and will attempt this with Germany concerning the common interests in Morocco. The situation is regarded by diplomatists as more critical than any experienced by France in her foreign relations since the Fashoda incident. Dispatches from most European capitals show that the French policy is being watched with the closest interest. A dispatch from Paris today represents the approach of a serious international crisis in which it is said the United States is likely to become involved.

THERE HAS since the practical destruction of Admiral Rojestvensky's fleet been more or less talk concerning peace between Russia and Japan, but as yet nothing tangible seems to be in evidence. Pending the decision of the Czar regarding war or peace, the President and the European embassadors, with whom he is daily conferring, have agreed that silence regarding their activity is necessary, and word to this effect has been passed along lest Russia take offence and go contrary to what the neutral powers believe to be for her own advantage. Court Cassini, the Russian Ambassador, remains without advices from St. Petersburg that throw any light on the probable policy of the Czar, although dispatches in the newspapers imply that he is not deaf to pacific suggestions. The ambassador has not yet received an acknowledgment of his long cable dispatch of last week regarding his conference with the President. That message was sent not for the purpose of transmitting any message to the Czar, but, acting on his own initiative, the ambassador made a faithful report of what was described at the time as an "informal and general conversation." Some still have hopes that peace will soon be in sight.

THE State Department has received an official census of Russia, showing a population of 125,640,021. This comprises thirty-seven tribes and nationalities. This number is two-thirds of the population of the entire empire. In the Caucasus there are only 34 per cent. Russians and among Armenians, Tartars, Georgians and others 50 per cent. The total number of inhabitants classified as Russians is 83,933,537. With this vast population Russia has so far been unable to put as large an army in the field in Manchuria as has Japan.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., June 7.

The move toward peace in the far East, at least so far as this government is concerned, has come to an abrupt halt. It became known here today that the Russian government is greatly displeased over the President's order prohibiting repairs to the Russian vessels at Manila. His action with reference to Admiral Enquist's ships has been construed by the Russians as unfair. That Russia's displeasure over the incident is very keen, is evident from the remark of a high official of the administration, when questioned as to when an authoritative statement might be expected with regard to the peace move, that no such statement will be issued. The inference is that Russia does not now look kindly upon President Roosevelt as a possible mediator.

Allowing for the difference in time between Manila and Washington it is expected that the three Russian ships, the Aurora, Oleg and Jumtchug, which, under the command of Admiral Enquist, participated in the battle of the Sea of Japan and later sought refuge at Manila in a battered condition, will be interned there this evening. The twenty-four hours which President Roosevelt determined should be the limit of their stay will expire some time tonight, depending upon the hour at which Governor Wright communicated the ultimatum to the Russian admiral. A special guard will be detailed to watch the interned vessels, the responsibility for whose safe keeping now will devolve on the United States government. Governor Wright, under date of 10.11 o'clock this morning, cabled to the War Department that he conveyed this morning to the Russian Admiral Enquist the instructions of the President which were sent yesterday and that the Russian admiral had responded that it would be impossible for him to put to sea in his present condition. It is calculated here that the twenty-four hours limit allowed him will expire at eight o'clock, Washington time, tonight, or nine o'clock tomorrow morning Manila time. The State Department has received no protest from the Russian government regarding the action of the United States towards the Russian ships at Manila, although it is regarded as quite probable that one will be made.

Richard Cheatham, secretary of the Southern Cotton Growers' Association, had an informal talk today with Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, regarding the charges that the government crop reports are being manipulated in the interests of a bear market, and that advance information had been allowed to leak out. It is understood that Mr. Chetham will later file formal charges with the department, together with alleged proof.

Owing to the absence in the south of Secretary Shaw, corroboration cannot be secured of the report from New York that he has been offered the chairmanship of the executive board of the Equitable Life Insurance Society. The belief among the Secretary's closiest friends is that he would give careful consideration to such an offer if made. It is understood that Secretary Shaw has already had an offer to identify himself with a large New York Trust Co., upon his retirement from the Cabinet in February.

A fraud order was issued this morning by the Postoffice Department against Dr. Winfield and Company and Madam C. Alviah, of Richmond, Virginia, manufacturers of a complexion compound alleged to be capable of turning a dark skin white. The compound was known as "Marwin."

Governor Magoon cables from the Panama Canal Zone reporting two additional cases of yellow fever there.

Representative Maynard, of Virginia, called at the White House today to introduce C. Brooks Johnson, chairman of the executive committee, and Barton Myers, auditor and chairman of the committee on ways and means of the Jamestown Exposition Company, who requested the President to issue to their foreign representatives credentials similar to those given the foreign agents of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition. This the President very readily agreed to do and the Virginians went to the State Department to confer with the officials there in regard to the matter The exposition officials said that the affairs of the enterprise were in very good shape and they have hopes of securing an increase in the congressional appropriation of $250,000

Rosier G. Swart has been appointed postmaster at Lottie, Rappahannock county, and Ella H. Shelton at Pole Green, Hanover county, Va.

The condition of Kogaro Takahira, the Japanese Minister, is reported to be so improved this morning that the Minister is able to give attention to several matters of pressing importance. A recurrence from which he has been a sufferer for a number of years confined him to his bed after his call at the White House to discuss peace negotiations with the President.

The Crown Prince and Bride.

Berlin, June 7.—The Crown Prince Frederick William and his bride, Cecilia, whose marriage was celebrated here yesterday with great ceremony, are now at Hubertvesock, a hunting lodge in the forest near Eberswalde, Prussia. They left for Hubertvesock last night, immediately after the wedding party was concluded, traveling in the crown prince's new special car, which has just been make for him. The couple will spend their honeymoon in a most democratic way in a secluded spot as the hunting lodge stands alone in the midst of the forest. There is no room in the hunting lodge for the accomodation of a large retinue of servants, so that the couple will be served simply, only one servant accompanying the young prince while Cecilia, likewise, has but a single attendant. All the household arrangements are on a small scale. The young people will pass their time in riding, playing tennis and other out-of-door sports.

Favor Dissolution.

Copenhagen, June 7.—A telegram from Christiana received today says that the Norwegian parliament voted unanimously for a resolution favoring the dissolution of the union which has existed tween Norway and Sweden. This action was taken following the refusal of King Oscar to sanction the bill recently passed by both houses of the parliament providing for a separate consulate service for Norway. The present government will temporarily assume the rights which the King has exercised. The parliament has passed an address to the King, notifying him of its action in voting for dissolution, and asking him to allow some prince of the Benadotte house to assume the Norwegian crown.

Stockholm, June 7.—King Oscar this morning telegraphed to the President of the parliament protesting against the dissolution.

Yachting Notes.

Cowes, Isle of Wight, June 7.—The Atlantic, winner of the recent race across the Atlantic for the Kaiser's cup, and the Apache, the Uiowana and the Valhalla, all of which were contestants in that race, have been entered in the race to be run from Dover to Heliogoland for another cup offered by the Kaiser. The start will be made on June 17.

Rothesay, Scotland, June 7.—It has been decided that if Mylne, the designer, of Glasgow, is successful in the coming English regatta with his new yacht, the Britomarte, he will begin next month designing a yacht for Sir Thomas Lipton as a fourth challenger for the America's cup.

King Alfonso.

London, July 7.—King Alfonso, while in the shopping district of Vond street today, had an exciting experience with his motor car. The machine stopped suddenly, but the king got it started with the aid of a postman and a policeman. Then it suddenly burst into flames. Alfonso and the officials with him jumped out, the king exclaiming: "How shall I get to the palace?" A second metor car, occupied by detectives, was placed at his disposal and the king was enabled to reach the palace in time to dress for the midday reception at the Mansion House. The crowds in the street greeted Alfonso enthusiastically.

Death of Beriah Wilkins.

Washington, June 7.—Beriah Wilkins, editor of the Washington Post, died at his home in this city at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.

News of the Day.

Though in bed with appendicitis, Miss Emma A. W. Wirth, of Baltimore, was married to Mr. John A. Angele yesterday.

Mr. H. E. Waernicke has been appointed assistant land and industrial agent of the Southern Railway, with office at Washington.

Chairman George B. Cortelyou, of the republican national committee, announces that he is prepared to resign the chairmanship, to be succeeded by Mr. Harry New.

Salvationists throughout the world have been called upon by Gen. William Booth, commander-in-chief of the Salvation Army, to set apart the week of June 10-17 as one for prayer and intercession that the war between Russia and Japan may cease.

On the occasion of the closure of the Eucharistic Congress in Rome yesterday the Pope descended from the Sistine Chapel into St. Peter's. He was carried in a special chair made for Pius VII., but which had not been used since the fall of the temporal power of the papacy. The Pontiff crossed the basilica in procession, which included all the cardinals in Rome and over 300 patriarchs, archbishops, bishops and heads of religious orders. From the pontifical altar the Pope imparted the apostolic benediction. More than 20,000 persons were present.

THE ROYAL WEDDING.

A full account of the marriage of Crown Prince Frederick William and Duchess Cecilia of Mecklenburg-Schwerin in the Palace Chapel of Berlin yesterday afternoon was published in the Gazette of that day.

After the wedding supper had been served a torchlight dance, a unique practice at weddings in the House of Hohenzollern for centuries, was performed in a modified form by 12 pages, bearing thick candles about two and a half feet tall. The Crown Prince took the hand of the Crown Princess and walked slowly behind the pages, keeping step to the music, around a quadrangle formed by men and women standing 10 feet deep along the sides of the drawing room, which is 105 by 50 feet, all bowing as the bridal couple passed. The Emperor then led the Crown Princess, and the Crown Prince led his mother around the same walk. Next the Crown Princess took each of the other princes and the Crown Prince each of the other princesses around the hall, occasionally several at a time, so that precedence might not be disregarded. Once Grand Duke Michael of Russia, Archduke Franz Ferdinand of Austria, Crown Prince Gustaf of Sweden and the Duke of Oporto were walking with the Crown Princess at the same time, two on either side.

This feature came to a close after 9 o'clock, the wedding party having lasted more than four hours.

After the conclusion of the dance the Crown Prince and the Crown Princess in an open carriage drove to the Stettin station, where a special train was awaiting them. Attached to the train was the Crown Prince's private car, which has just been built for him and which will be used in all his future travels.

The Emperor, with all the younger princes, awaited the conple at the station to say farewell.

The bridal pair have gone to Hubertusstock, a hunting lodge in a large forest near Eberswalde, Prussia. This is a simple sort of house in the woods, where it is the Emperor's custom to go deerstalking.

The present young Duchess is not the first Princess of Mecklenburg who has worn the imperial crown. Once, and only once, in the annals of the Prussian court did a princess wear an imperial crown, and that was also a Princess of Mecklenburg, Sophie Louise, who was married to Frederick I of Prussia as his third consort in 1708. This formality took place just before the marriage ceremony and signified not only a bridal adornment, but a coronation.

Several of the royal castles are now being put in order for the Crown Prince and Princess. Their regular abode will be the Stadtschloss, in Potsdam. In the summer they will live in the marble palace of the same city. This castle is on a charming lake, the Heiligen See. It was built by Frederick William II in 1787, but first assumed its present shape in 1853, under Frederick William IV. The castle will be provided with all comforts. Several rooms in the building will be enlarged by the taking out of walls. The kitchen, for example, connected with the castle by a subterranean passage, has been entirely renovated. The marble castle will be rebuilt in such manner that it can serve the Kaiser as a summer residence, for the monarch and his wife have a great liking for the marble palace at which they lived in the first period of their marriage. In 1906 the Castle of Babelsberg, also in Potsdam, will be ready for the Crown Prince and his wife.

Babelsberg was the favorite summer residence of the old Emperor. After his death the castle came into the possession of his daughter, the grand Duchess of Baden, but so great was the cost of its maintenance that she turned over her rights in the property to the present Kaiser. He has, however, never lived in it, as he desired to maintain it as a memorial to his grandfather. Now, at the express wish of the Crown Prince, he has given orders to enlarge the castle by adding a dining room for 150 persons and a stable in which 50 horses can be quartered. The cost of rebuilding the castle will amount to $750,000. The room where the old Kaiser lived will remain intact.

COURT OF APPEALS.

The Court of Appeals convened at Wytheville yesterday, Judges Keith, Cardwell, Buchanan, Harrison and Whittle, the full court, being present. The first case on the docket, Eureka club vs Perkins, was dismissed for failure to pay for printing.

Edward Lyle, receiver, vs. A. E. Sarvey, from corporation court of Roanoke city. Argued and submitted.

Next cases to be called; Norfolk and Western Railway Company vs. Spencer's administratrix, from corporation court of Roanoke, and Richardson vs. Wymer and Hughes vs. Jesse, from the twenty-third circuit. The court also disposed of several appeals and writs of supercedeas, but none from this section of the State.

Virginia News.

It is reported that President Roosevelt is planning to buy a summer home in Albemarle county.

John Bennett Pitt, of Portsmouth, whose bones were so brittle that he broke his leg nine times, is dead.

A marriage license was issued in Washington yesterday to John H. Higgins and Fannie M. Weedon, both of Loudoun county.

Charles R. Crane, of Chicago, a warm friend of President Alderman, of the University of Virginia, has subscribed $5,000 to the Jefferson memorial endowment fund. This makes $8,000 that has been contributed to this fund since the inauguration April 13.

The forty-third anniversary of the death of Gen. Turner Ashby was observed at Winchester yesterday as Confederate Memorial Day. Fully 10,000 persons from Winchester and cities and towns of the Valley of Virginia attended the exercises at Stonewall Cemetery. The orator was Rev. James Gray McAllister, of Richmond.

Messrs. Davis & Davis, Washington patent attorneys, report the grant, this week, to citizens of this State, of the following patents: Paul S. Butterworth, of Richmond and Steven F. Hart, of Ashland, for a stamp; Columbus K. Lassiter, of Richmond, for a bolt-turning machine; William M. Pugh, of Pocahontas, for coke grapple.

The tenth annual convention of the Virginia State Federation of Labor began at Newport News yesterday with about 60 delegates from all parts of the State in attendance Col. Marcus Jones, president of the Board of Aldermen, and acting mayor, welcomed the visitors to the city. The appointment of credentials and press committees was about the only business transacted at yesterday's session. Officers will be elected Thursday and other matters of importance will be disposed of today.

The plant of the Appomattox Planing Mill and Box Factory Company, at Petersburg, was destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon with machinery and a large quantity of dressed lumber. Three box cars and one flat loaded with about 60,000 feet of lumber consigned to the company were also burned. During the fire another frame building on Bolling street, occupied by C. C. Luchenburg as a mattress factory, took fire from flying sparks and was burned. The total loss by the fire is between $8,000 and $10,000, partly covered by insurance.

Returns from 40 counties in Virginia in the shape of replies to circulars sent out asking for information indicate a very considerable increase in voting strength. The 40 counties heard from cast in 1904 a total of 38,535 votes, of which 23,517 were democrats and the remainder republican. These counties cast about 30 per cent. of the total vote. The reports just received show that the available vote in these counties now is 65,354, which indicates that the total vote in the State will be 215,000, of which, it is estimated, the democrats will cast 130,000. It is figured that this will give them their usual majority of about 40,000. The republicans, however, contend that there has been great change in the electorate and that the result will be a great surprise to the democrats.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Dispatches from Chicago today are to the effect that the indications point to a settlement of the teamsters' troubles.

The Hon. Joseph H. Choate, late Ambassador to Great Britain, returned to New York today. With him were his wife and daughter.

Interborough Rapid Transit Co., which controls the subway and "L" systems, in New York, today, declared a quarterly dividend of 2 per ceut. an increase of ¼ per cent over the previous payment.

John M. Moore, of Richmond, Texas, democrat, has been elected successor to the late Congressman John M. Pinckney from the Eighth district. Congressman Pinckney, it will be remembered, was recently shot and killed at a temperance meeting.

Pierre J. Smith, a Dartmouth student, of Upper Mont Clair, N. J., died last night at the Mary Hitchcock Hospital, Hanover, N. H., of cerebro spinal meningitis after an illness of twelve hours. Smith was a member of the football squad last fall and an officer of Sigma Chi fraternity.

FOREIGN NEWS.

John Hay, Secretary of State, left London today for Liverpool, whence he will sail for home on the Baltic.

An asylum scandal has been discovered in Granada, Spain. Twenty rich persons, it was found, were detained there at the instance of plotting relatives, though they were sane. The investigators learned that criminal attempts were made to madden these inmates. The directors and physicians connected with the asylum are under arrest.

The anarchist Artal, who attempted to assassinate Premier Maura in April, 1904, tried to escape from the Ceuta jail at Madrid yesterday, disguised as a warden. He had gained the outside of the prison when the sentries challenged him. He made no reply and was fatally shot. It it believed that anarchists had arranged his escape.

Chinese in Manchuria.

Birmingham, June 7.—The Post states that as the result of the representations made by China to foreign governments that Chinese subjects in Manchuria have been subjected to great losses, in consequence of the war and that there is a great deal of suffering among the natives of that country, the British and American governments are considering the question of sending consular officers to investigate the conditions. If it is found that the Chinese representations are true, steps will then be taken to relieve the distress of the Manchurian natives.

PEACE PROSPECTS.

The St. Petersburg correspondent of the London Times asserts that there is some hope that the peace efforts of Foreign Minister Lamsdorff and his colleagues will not prove altogether barren. He claims that he is assured from a very trustworthy source that early peace is no longer without the bounds of probability, but unless the efforts succeed within the next few days they will have to be indefinitely postponed, for once the Japanese begin their impending operations it is scarcely probable that they will agree to suspend them, and after their completion the whole aspect of peace negotiations will be altered. The views of foreign governments are undoubtedly being untilized by Count Lamsdorff to influence the Czar, and that, it may be correctly said, describes the role of foreign diplomacy as opposed to the talk of mediation.

Beyond the statement that the advisability of confiding the opening of peace negotions to President Roosevelt, in the event that Emperor Nicholas shall have decided that the time has arrived to indicate to Japan Russia's desire to end the struggle, was presented in a favorable light, no definite announcement could be made in St. Petersburg yesterday regarding the result of Foreign Minister Lamsdorff's audience with the emperor on the subject of Count Cassini's dispatch communicating President Roosevelt's practical tender of good offices.

Yesterday afternoon the eyes of the diplomats at Petersburg were riveted on Washington, and the dispatches recounting the series of interviews between President Roosevelt, Count Cassini, Minister Takahira, Ambassador Speck von Sternburg and others were read with great interest. No doubt is entertained that the exchanges of views are in the nature of a concerted effort to bring about peace in the far East. A high official of the Foreign Office, however, again distinctly said that Count Cassini's conversation with the President was informal, and did not necessarily involve a response. This official was strongly of the opinon that the Emperor is determined to continue the struggle.

A dispatch to the semi-official Paris Temps from St. Petersburg says: "It is learned from an authoritative source that the unanimous efforts of the Ministers are directed toward peace and that they hope to succeed shortly." Information reaching Paris gives a decidedly more hopeful view to the peace outlook.

Regarding the attitude of Emperor William toward the war in the far East, it can be authoritatively stated that from the beginning of the war the Emperor has been anxious for peace. He, however, has refrained from advising either of the belligerents, believing that until one or the other of them should intimate a wish to conclude peace any intervention or offer of mediation would prove futile. The Emperor, however, has let his strong desire for peace be known.

A dispatch from headquarters of the Russian army at Godzyadani, Manchuria, says that undismayed by Rojestvensky's defeat and full of confidence as to the outcome of the approaching battle, Lieutenant General Linevitch is for war to the bitter end, and he believes that the Manchurian army is now strong enough to assume the aggressive. To a question put to him as to whether he was for war or peace, the commander-in-chief replied firmly and without the slightest hestiation: "Most certainly, I am for war, I am a soldier. The Emperor's will is naturally my law, but my voice now as before, is for the continuance of the fight. With the destruction of our fleet vanishes, of course, the hopes of those who at the beginning of the war wished to make peace at Tokio, but our defeat at sea has not interfered with my plans—absolutely not one whit. I consider myself strong enought now not only to hold my ground, but even to advance. I am no prophet, and have no desire to be one, but I firmly believe that I can and will defeat the Japanese in Manchuria. I have asked the war office to send me reservists of the youngest classes, instead of older ones, not because the latter make poor soldiers, but because with plenty of young and vigorous reservists it would be unjust, as well as inadvisable, to call the older men from their more settled life"

A dispatch from St. Peterburg dated at an early hour this morning says that telegraphic and telephonic communication with Moscow has been severed and the report of the evening session of the All-Russian Zemstvo Congress had not been received up to midnight. A rumor is current in St. Petersburg that the meeting was broken up by police and military. The All-Russian Zemstvo Congress the delegates to which included the mayors of twenty-five of the largest cities met at Moscow yesterday, notwithstanding government prohibition, and resolved with practical unanimity to demand the convocation of a zemsky sobor, and the submission to it of the question of peace or war. Practically all the delegates are in favor of peace, the minority wishing a zemsky sobor called for the sole purpose of acting on this question.

The Earthquake in Albania.

Vienna, June 7.—Reports from Soutari, Albania, which was badly damaged recently by an earthquake, shows that the shocks are still felt at intervals, and that a reign of terror exists in the town. The shocks felt in the last few days have wrecked the few houses which remained standing after the first earthquake The people are camped in the streets or living in the open country outside of the town. Food is scarce and many of the inhabitants are suffering from hunger. To make their condition worse, organized bands of plunderers are operating there robbing the people of the little they have saved from the wreeks of their homes and threatening everyone who resists with death.

Today's Telegraphic News

Russian Affairs.

St. Petersburg, June 7.—Fresh troubles occurred in the districts of Nakahitchevan, and Erivan between the Tartars and Armenians, who have recently jointed in several bloody conflicts. For a while the struggle was confined to the Nakhitchevan province, but in the last few days the feeling between the races has become so strong that the disorders have spread to the Erivan district in spite of all efforts of the governor to prevent it. There have been many encounters in which blood has flowed freely, and it is feared that worse troubles will follow unless the race war can be checked.

St. Petersburg, June, 7.—The Russian people who have feared that the promotion of General Trepoff to the position of assistant Minister of the Interior, with pratically dictatorial powers, meant that the government intends to pursue a policy of strict repression, have found material on which to base their fears in one of the first acts of the new assistant minister. Trepoff is now using all his influence to curtail educational facilities in Russia, on the theory that when the people become educated their eyes are opened to the horror of the conditions under which they live, and that this weakens the authority of the government. Today Trepoff summoned the principals of all high schools in St. Petersburg for a conference, and urged upon them the plan of uniting to demand that tuition fees at all the universities of the country shall be raised to 500 roubles a year. In a speech to the principals he said: "If this is done, it will close the means of higher education to poor people who, after receiving scholastic training, are the most ardent propagators of revolutionary ideals. There is an over production of intellectual people in Russia, and the increasing number is dangerous to the welfare of the empire." There is a bon mot going the rounds of the saloons of St. Petersburg, at present, which is credited to a high government official to the effect that Russia offered Japan to exchange Nicholas II, the emperor for Nicholas I. the battleship which was captured in the recent naval battle, but that the Japanese declined. If such a joke at the expense of the Czar had been uttered a year ago, the perpetrator would have been sent to Siberia, but today the people everywhere are repeating it with impunity.

The Novoe Vremya today publishes a bitter attack upon President Roosevelt for his action ordering the Russian warships which reached Manila and asked time to repair the damaged sustained in the recent battle with the Japanese to either leave that port or dismantle. In naval circles great indignation is also expressed against the President for this action and many officials are inclined to assume a threatening attitude.

The Czar has issued a proclamation to the peasants requesting them to cooperate with the commission headed by M. Bouligan, the Minister of the Interior, to work out the details for a representative assembly. The proclamation bears the date of last Saturday.

Crisis in International Politics.

Paris, June 7.—In an interview today with the correspondent of the Publishers' Press a high official made important revelations which show that the present crisis in international politics is really more dangerous to the peace of the world than has appeared. The statement shows that in official circles it is felt that France faces a crisis which threatens to plunge her into war and which may involve the greater portion of Europe as well as the United States. The Moroccan question, which has brought affairs to a head so to speak, is really unimportant in comparison with the other issues involved. In this statement the official said: "The trouble is not in the Moroccan question, but it lies in a more remote and more serious cause. This is the ambition of the Kaiser to draw the continental powers together under the influence of Germany in view of an eventual conflict with England and the United States, which the Kaiser considers inevitable. France's participation in this movement is necessary to this scheme. France's rapproachment with England and her pro-American policy threatened to hamper this drawing together of the continental powers. Hence the effort of Germany to break the Anglo-French entente at any price Morocco was taken for a pretext to do this. Today we find ourselves facing the alternative of choosing between England or Germany. The extreme gravity of the situation is shown by the fact that the German army is within 200 kilometers of Paris. Even if England joined in the conflict, she would be unable to hold France to check the advance, and once the first blow was struck, we would be at a disadvantage. We know, too, from the experience of 1870, how little hope we can place in the other powers." While it is stated optimistically that the resignation of M. Delcasse, as Foreign Minister, has relieved the strain, the innermost governmental circles are far from reassured. Fears are even entertained that new complications may arise to make the situation worse.

Five Times Divorced.

Chicago, June 7.—It is announced that Mrs. Grace Snell-Coffin-Coffin-Walker-Coffin-Layman, who has been divorced five times, is to lengthen her hyphenated name; that she is to become the bride of Mack Love, of Los Angeles. Mr. Love is described as 27 years old, with beautiful brown eyes and very little money. He is said to be a writer of historical novels.

The bride-to-be is the daughter of the millionaire banker who was murdered in this city in 1888. More than $100,000 was expended in the search for the murderer, but he was found. The chief distinction of this remarkable woman lies in her rondness for re-marrying her divorced husbands. She was married to Coffin three times. The last divorce but one was from Coffin, but she couldn't stay out of matrimonial harness very long, and became the wife of Perkins A. Layman, a hotel man. The courts cut her loose from him within a year.

Foundering of a Schooner.

Sandy Hook, N. J., June 7.—A two masted schooner believed to be a fishing boat of about thirty tons, was foundered on Romer Shoal, in lower New York bay, shortly after daylight this morning. A few minutes later the boat went to pieces and it is believed that the crew have been drowned. Just before the vessel went to the bottom a man was observed in the force rigging but nothing was seen of him or of any of the others on board afterwards. A fishing vessel of thirty tons usually carries a crew of six or eight men.

Davis Elected.

Wheeling, W. Va., June 7.—Thomas B. Davis, democrat, brother of Henry G. Davis, was elected as representetive from the Second district by at least 800 majority, over James P. Lakin, of Terra Alta, reversing a republican majority jast fall of 3,335. Davis carried the democratic counties and four counties usually republican. The latter vote slumped in every precinct. Davis is the first democrat elected in this district since William L. Wilson was beaten by A. G. Dayton in 1894. Davis is 77 years old and a multi-millionaire.

The War.

London, June 7.—The Evening Standard prints a special dispatch from Moscow which states that information has reached there that General Kuroki one of the division commanders of the Japanese army fn Manchuria is making a wide turning movement against the Russians.

Order to Russian Consul.

Manila, June 7.—President Roosevelts order that the Russian squadron must sail within 24 hours after June 7 or interne, was delivered to Admiral Enquist today.

New York Stock Market.

New York, June 7.—In the international list a decline of ½ per cent. in Southern Pacific was the greatest variation at the opening of the stock market. No other change was more than 1-8 per cent. Price movements during the first hour, were mixed and the trading was small. Brokers stated that the stamp tax has restricted the operations of room traders. It is expected a member of the exchange will be put under arrest for violation of the stamp law.

AUCTION SALES.

IMPORTANT! RARE OPPORTUNITY!

SALE OF DESIRABLE LOTS, PARCELS AND TRACTS, SOME IMPROVED WITH HOUSES AND OTHER BUILDINGS, AND OTHERS UNIMPROVED BUT SUITABLE FOR BUILDING AND OTHER PURPOSES, AT

POTOMAC CITY, Quantico, VA.,

MONDAY, JUNE 19, at 1:30 p. m.

TAKE NOTICE—The sale is to take place at Potomac City, NOT AT MANASSAS. Sale was originally advertised for Manassas, but has been postponed to June 19th in order that it may take place AT POTOMAC CITY, where property is situated.

BY VIRTUE OF A DECREE OF THE Corporation Court of the city of Alexandria, Virginia, rendered on the 7th day of November, 1904, in the chancery cause of Solomon Myers and Isodore Myers, executors of Lewis Myers, deceased, vs. Max Lansburgh and others, the undersigned special commissioners of sale, will on MONDAY, JUNE 19, 1905,

at 1:30 p. m., at POTOMAC CITY (QUANTICO), VA., sell at public auction so much of the right, title, interest and estate of the defendant, Max Lansburgh, in and to that valuable and extensive domain situated in the county of Prince William, State of Virginia,

FRONTING ON THE POTOMAC RIVER, AT POTOMAC CITY (QUANTICO), VA.,

described as containing 4,264 acres, more or less, and bounded on the north by Quantico creek, on the south by Chappawamsic creek and on the west by the telegraph road, together with all rights and appurtenances there to belonging or in any wise appertaining, as may be necessary to satisfy the amount of the said decree in favor of the plaintiffs against the said Max Lansburgh; to-wit, the sum of $2,741.77, with interest on $2,473.66, part thereof, from March 6, 1900, and on $268.11, the residue thereof from October 4, 1901, until paid, and the costs of this suit and of sale.

Terms of Sale—One-third of the purchase money in cash on the day of sale and the residue in two equal installments at six and twelve months from the day of sale, the deferred installments to bear interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum from the day of sale until paid, and the title to be retained until the full payment of the purchase money. The purchaser or purchasers may at their option pay all in cash. All conveyancing to be at the cost of the purchaser or purchasers.

Although the holdings of defendant, Max Lansburgh, are subject to the contingent dower right of his wife in the equity of redemption, and subject also to the rights of W. A. Wimsatt under a certain agreement bearing date February 9, 1904 and March 4, 1904, respectively, and the deed made in pursuance thereof, recorded among the land records of Prince William county in liber 52, page 323, and consequently, should it be necessary to sell the entire holdings of Mr. Lansburgh, the sale would have to be subject thereto; yet the commissioners will be in a position to give good titles to individual lots, parcels etc., without encroaching upon the bulk of the domain, because, in the first place, resort would after such sales have to be made in respect of said contingent dower interest to the remaining bulk of the domain thus relieving the individual lots, parcels &c. and, in the second place, the rights of W. A. Wimsatt are expressly subject to a release by him of his liens when individual lots, parcels etc., without encroaching upon the bulk of the domain, and without interference with his timber cutting, are sold.

In conductinng the sale, therefore, the commissioners will first proceed to offer individuals lots, parcels etc, as follows:

Church and schoolhouse together with half acre of ground;

Two 2-story 7-room dwellings, very desirable;

Four 1-story dwellings, containing, respectively, 2, 3 and 4 rooms;

One store-building, one story;

An exceptionally large 2-story dwelling in addition to the the two already mentioned;

One combined stable and barn;

Numerous valuable building lots;

"M. Turner Tract" of 32 acres;

"T. Turner Tract of 40.25 acres:

"Dowell Tract" of 40 acres;

"Maddox Tract" of 48 acres;

"Downer Tract" of 57.75 acre;

"McNair Tract" of 70.12 acres; etc. etc.

This is a great opportunity to buy homes and build homes in the eastern section of the county, with excellent railroad facilities, and all the advantages of the water facilities afforded by the Potomac river which are the more available at Potomac City on account of the depth of the channel at that point.

JAMES R. CATON,
J. B. T. THORNTON,
Commissioners of Sale.

I, John S. Beach, Clerk of the Corporation Court of Alexandria, do certify that James R. Caton has executed bond with approved surety as required by the above decree.

The Free Kindergarten.

The regular monthly meeting of the Free Kindergarten Association was held last night at the residence of Mr. G. W. Ramsay. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Edward Stabler; vice president, Mr. Worth Hulfish; secretary, Miss E. C. McKnight; treasurer, Mr. Robert S. Jones. Two new members were added to the board—Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Brockett. Grateful and heartfelt thanks were voted by the board to Mrs. Oscar Carter, Mrs. L. E. Uhler, Miss Melissa Hill, Mrs. Matthew W. O'Brien and Miss Lelia Steiner for the successful benefit tendered the association; also thanks to Mrs. Edward Kemper, Mrs. R. M. Green and all the mothers who so willingly assisted and contributed. Too much praise cannot be bestowed upon Mrs. Carter and Miss Hill for the beautiful operetta written and composed by them, and it is the universal request that the public may have the pleasure of seeing it again in the autumn. Alexandria has just cause to be proud of its talented daughters. Reports from the kindergarten and the secretary and treasurer indicated increased interest in the work. It was stated that some few subscribers had not paid their dues for 1905, but it is hoped that they will do so in the near future. Miss Fossett stated that Mrs Andrews had tendered the use of her home, "Vaucluse," and the surrounding grounds for a picnic for the children, but owing to inclement weather on the day named her kind hospitality could not be enjoyed Mrs. Andrews, however, has sent a generous donation to enable the children to visit Mount Vernon at some future time.

Relics for Mount Vernon.

A dispatch from Nashville, Tenn, says that Col. Andrew Jackson has sold the old Washington chair, the most prized relic of President Jackson, to the Mount Vernon Association for $7,500. This chair was willed by Gen. Washington to his family physician, Dr. Craik, and members of the Craik family gave it to Gen. Jackson. Another historic and valuable relic of Gen. Washington has just been placed in the mansion at Mount Vernon. It is a mahogany shaving stand which was used by Gen. Washington every day after it came into his possession. It is now in the room in which it was used. This table is in a remarkable state of preservation. It was presented to Gen. Washington by the first French Minister accredited to the United States. The heirloom was purchased by the board of regents from Mrs. Thomas C. Cox, who inherited it. The stand was willed by Gen. Washington to Dr. Davis Stuart, of Fairfax county, whose first wife was Miss Washington. At his death the table was handed down to William Robinson, who willed it to his daughter, Mrs. Cox. The table was made in France. It has the old-fashioned spindle legs. There is a lid, inside of which is a mirror. There are three drawers, one at each end of the table and one in the center. Mrs. Cox herself delivered the table to Mount Vernon. While she declines to disclose the price she received for the stand, it is understood to have been $4,000.

The Friendship in Hagerstown.

A dispatch from Hagerstown, Md., announces the arrival there yesterday of the Friendship Veteran Fire Association of this city. There are 40 members of the company and a drum corps organization. The dispatch states that "the Alexandrians had in the parade today their first first engine, which was presented to the company by George Washington, who was the company's first president." Prominent among the men with the Alexandria company are Mayor Frederick J. Paff, ex-Mayor E. E. Downham, City Councilmen Charles B. Marshall and J. Y. Williams, Chief of Police James F. Webster, Capt. George W. Pettey, chief of the fire department, and others, some of whom have been volunteer firemen for 62 years.

Mr. Eddie Wildt this morning received a telegram from Mr. August Calmes stating that the Alexandrians were having a good time. They will return tomorrow. They met with a grand reception.

The Carnival.

The carnival at the old fair grounds attracted another large crowd last night. The attractions are many and instructive. Osay, the snake charmer, is quite a feature. She goes into a den of snakes of all descriptions and after worrying them for about ten minutes bites the head off of one and literally eats it alive. The "wild animal tent" attracts a great deal of attention and the performance seen is really worth more than the price of admission. Ferocious lions and hyenas are easily subdued by two young women. The performance by the Girls in Red was again witnessed by large crowds. The other attractions also prove large drawing cards.

Police Court.

[Justice W. H. May presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Pierce McGinnis, arrested by Officer Henderson charged with disorderly conduct and fighting, was dismissed.

Allen Gordon, arrested by the same officer charged with a similar offense, was fined $2.50.

Annie Brown and Noah Green, both colored, arrested by Officer Smith charged with selling cocaine, were fined $25 each.

Change in the Weather.

The torrid weather of yesterday gave place last night to much cooler conditions, and rain which followed before morning brought the temperature down still lower. The mercury yesterday touched 92°, the highest point reached this year. The heat caused discomposure to man and beast, although no one here was prostrated by it. About 9 o'clock last night the wind veered from southwest to northeast, when the temperature began to fall. This morning at 7 o'clock the mercury stood at 68°.

The schooner Farmer's Friend, loaded with lumber by Smoot & Co., has sailed for Moxley's Point.

The Steamer Pentz.

The old excursion steamer Samuel J. Pentz, for many years a familiar figure on the Potomac, has had the sentence of death passed upon her. For several weeks past she has been lying at the 9th street wharf of the American Ice Company in Washington with only a watchman aboard. It is stated she will shortly be taken to a shipyard somewhere in the north, and will have her engine removed and such of her fittings as can be used in a new boat will also be taken out of her. A new steamer will be built on modern and up-to-date lines, and the engine of the Pentz will be installed in her. The new steamer will be a large and roomy craft, and will be used for excursions and general work on the river. The plans for the new boat are being prepared, and the work will be started in the early fall so that she will be ready for service before the opening of the 1906 excursion season on the Potomac. The new boat will be about 200 feet long and will have ample beam to give her stability on the water with a crowd aboard. The Pentz was built at Greenpoint, New York, in 1859, and for a time ran on New York waters. She later became the property of the Potomac Steamboat Company, and at times ran on the Aquia creek mail route. During late years she has been used as an excursion steamer on the Potomac.

Personal.

Mrs. Bullock, widow of Rev. Dr. J. J. Bullock, formerly of this city, left Washington on June 1 for Elkton, to spend the summer and autumn in the Blue Ridge Mountains.

Miss Mabel Hunter, of Fairfax, is visiting Mrs. George W. Francis, at her home on south St. Asaph street.

Miss Daisy L. Herbert and Mr. Harry M. Head were married last night at the parsonage of St. Mary's Church by Rev. Father H. J. Cutler.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas W. Tucker, of Washington, with their two little daughters, Loris and Grayce, are visiting relatives in this city, and will be pleased to see their friends at the residence of their sister, Mrs. E. H. Hammond, 324 north St. Asaph street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Wildt and daughter, Miss Lillie Wildt will leave here on the 13th for New York, whence they will on the 15th sail for Europe where they will spend the summer. Their many friends wish them a pleasant trip and a safe return.

Rev. Father Henry A. Judge, of Georgetown, was today granted leave in the Corporation Court to perform the rites of matrimony in Virginia.

Accident to a Train.

North bound passenger train No. 14 of the Manassas division was derailed about 10:30 o'clock this morning at Wellington. The accident was caused by a broken rail. The engine, tender and five cars left the track. The baggage master, flagman and several passengers were more or less injured, but none seriously. The train was in charge of Conductor W. W. Payne and Engineer Blake. The passengers were brought here this afternoon on passenger train No. 10 of the Southern Railway.

Later—Those injured were: Baggagemaster Fitzsimmons, Flagman McQuillan, and passengers Horace Johnson, Miss Bertha Smith and a colored woman named Annie Hill. The injured passengers passed through this city this evening on their way to Washington.

Caused a Laugh.

In the trial in Washington yesterday of W. G. Crawford, the former deputy auditor for the Postoffice Department, a number of witnesses were presented to prove his previous good character. Among the number was Capt. R. E. Lee, of Fairfax county, a member of the Washington bar. A general laugh was brought on by District Attorney Beach, who declined to cross-examine Capt. Lee, stating that he would like to ask him some questions, but that he could not ask them while he was on the stand. In a moment Mr. Worthington was on his feet to know what the district attorney meant, when Mr. Beach remarked that the question he had in mind was about politics down in Virginia.

Returned From Richmond.

Mr. M. B. Harlow has returned from Richmond where he went to attend a meeting of the executive committee of the State Board of Trade. He says the railroads are making the point before the Corporation Commission that under the charters granted them before the organization of the commission, they are permitted to charge such rates as will secure for the railroads 15 per cent. upon the capital stock of their respective companies. Mr. Harlow also says that most of the State officers he talked with in Richmond, most of the business men of that city and nearly all the members of the Board of Trade committee are avowed Martin men and express the hope and belief of the Senator's re-election.

Election of Officers.

Alexandria Tent, No. 2, K. O. T. M., held their semi-annual election of officers on Monday night, when the following officers were chosen: Commander, Geo. W. Zacharg; Lieutenant Commander, Wm. H. Bontz; Chaplain, Harry A. Blondheim; Sergeant, T. E. Cornnell; Master of Arms, B. E. Bayliss; 1st M. of G., Walter Herfurth; 2nd M. of G., Chas. R. Acton; Sentinel, H. C. Ponnet; Picket, Louis M. Walker. These officers elect will be duly installed by Deputy State Commander Chas. A. Bladen at the first meeting in July.

Property Sales.

Mr. John D. Normoyle, real estate agent, has sold to Mr. Julian Y. Williams the three-story brick dwelling No. 206 north Royal street; also to Mr. Geo. Williams the two-story frame dwelling at the southeast corner of Pitt and Pendleton streets; also to Mr. J. H. Bryant, of Washington, lot No. 353 in Del Ray.

Jas. G. Hudson has sold to T. A. Groves a house and lot on the north side of King street between Alfred and Patrick.

Stockholders Meeting.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of The Washington Real Estate Company held last Monday in this city the following officers were elected: John H. Walter, president; J. Augustus Taylor, vice president; John Sidney Webb, treasurer; Wm. H. Baden, secretary; Theodore J. Pickett, auditor. Directors: John H. Walter, J. Augustus Taylor, Theodore J. Pickett, M. B. Harlow John Sidney Webb, Chas. H. Merillat and Robinson Riley.

Guarantees To Cure Drunkenness.

We never guarantee a remedy unless we know it possesses real merit. We strongly recommend Orrine as a cure for drunkenness for we are positive that it stops the craving for alcoholic stimulants.

Orrine No. 1 is a secret remedy and can be given in tea, coffee, soup, milk or food, without the slighest knowledge of the patient, as it is perfectly colorless, tasteless and harmless. Orrine No. 2 is in pill form, for those desiring to be cured. Either form $1 per package, mailed sealed. All correspondence treated with the greatest confidence. Write to the Orrine Company, Inc., Washington, D. C., for free book on "Drunkenness, mailed in plain envelope

We have exclusive sale in this city, and are pefectly satisfied that the Company is reliable and will refund the money if they fail to cure the craving for liquor. For sale by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Druggists, Alexandria, Va.

Sold Cocaine.

Annie Brown and Noah Green, both colored, were arrested yesterday by Officer Smith charged with selling cocaine. A young colored woman, who had been struck a violent blow on the left eye and was in a bedraggled condition generally, testified that she purchased the narcotic from the accused. Justice May imposed a fine of $25 upon each of the defendants.

Funerals.

The remains of the late Mrs. Pearl I. Hoy, who died suddenly at her home on south Fairfax street last Monday night, were sent to Washington this morning and her funeral will take place from her grandmother's residence, 7th and I streets, southwest, in that city, tomorrow evening at 2 o'clock.

Organ Recital.

There will be an organ recital in Grace Church Friday night (the 9th) by Mr. S. Frederick Smith, of Washington College of Music, and solos by Mrs. L. C. Hulfish and Mr. Harry Stephens. A silver offering will be taken for the benefit of the organ fund.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Officer Arrington killed a vicious dog in the northwestern section of the city this morning.

A little son of Engineer Irby fell from a swing at his parents' residence on King street yesterday and was painfully injured.

The reception to be given by the ladies of St. Paul's Church will be held tonight at the Parish Hall, corner of Pitt and Duke streets, from 8 to 10 o'clock. The Mandolin Club will furnish sweet music during the evening.

Deputy Constable T. G. Cochran arrived here today from West Virginia and took charge of William Hicks, colored, who is wanted in that State for cutting Minnie Moore. Hicks was arrested by Alexandria officers a day or two ago.

A homing pigeon bearing the initials J. M. 55405 on a bright nickel band of right leg, and a brass band on left leg, was picked up by Mr. John Laphen at the intersection of Cameron and Royal streets about sundown yesterday evening and is well cared for.

The personal property contained in the residence of Thomas E. Waggaman, declared a bankrupt by the District of Columbia court, was offered for sale at auction today by order of the trustee, H. Rozier Delaney. The sale began at 10:30 o'clock at the residence, 3300 O street, Georgetown. The private art collection and the house furnishings in every detail, as well as the horses, carriages, and harness, belonging to Mr. Waggaman were offered the highest bidder.

A delegation representing the Kenilworth Citizens' Association called upon the Prince George (Md.) county commissioners at Upper Marlboro yesterday, and asked them to do something about stopping the poolroom being operated in their neighborhood. They said they wanted a constable appointed who would assist the sheriff in making a raid, and the commissioners told them to go ahead and name the man and they would approve his appointment. The delegation, not having selected a man, nothing was done.

A Fearful Fate.

It is a fearful fate to have to endure the terrible torture of Piles, "I can truthfully say," writes Harry Colson, of Masonville, Ia., "that for Blind, Bleeding, Itching and Protruding Piles, Bucklen's Arnica Salve, is the best cure made." Also best for cuts, burns and injuries. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons Druggist.

Cuban Diarrhoea.

U. S. soldiers who served in Cuba during the Spanish war know what this disease is, and that ordinary remedies have little more effect than so much water. Cuban diarrhoea is almost as severe and dangerous as a mild attack of cholera. There is one remedy, however, that can always be depended upon as will be seen by the following certificate from Mrs. Minnie Jacobs of Houston, Texas: "I hereby certify Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy cured my husband of a severe attack of Cuban diarrhoea, which he brought home from Cuba. We had several doctors but they did him no good. One bottle of this remedy cured him, as our neighbors will testify. I than God for so valuable a medicine." For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

TO THE OWNERS OF DOGS.

Mayor's Office,
Alexandria, Va., June 1, 1905.

All persons owning or intending to keep any animal of the dog or canine species must come forward on or before and take out a license for the same from the Auditor. After the NINETEENTH OF JUNE all persons owning or harboring dogs without the required license can be fined (as the laws on the subject require) $5 for every dog so owned or harbored.

JUNE FIFTEENTH, 1905,

Complaint has been frequently made that many persons fail to take out their license, and that others pay on one or two dogs when owning and harboring more, or who send such dogs away during the summer months and bring them back in the fall.

Attention has been called to this evasion of the law, and the policemen will report all such cases, and fines can be imposed upon those who fail to take out licenses after trial in the Police Court.

The police officers will be required to report all violations of this law.

In order to avoid any mistakes persons who make application for licenses would do well to write their names and number of residence, street, &c., on a card or paper when making application for their licenses to the Auditor. FRED. J. PAFF, Mayor.

License and Tag, $1.50

When You Put Milk In Tea.

"The scientific justification for adding milk to tea," says the Dietetic and Hygienic Gazette, "comes from the facts that the tannic acid contained in tea combines with the albumen of the milk to form tannate of albumen, which is practically leather. By drinking tea alone the coating of the stomach is made leathery. But when milk, which contains albumen, is added the molecules of tannic acid select their affinity of albumen from it, and as a divorce is unknown to tannate of albumen the lining of the stomach is less liable to be affected by the tannic acid than it would be if the tea were taken alone."

We Are All Queer.

Call a girl a chick and she smiles; call a woman a hen and she howls. Call a young woman a witch and she is pleased; call an old woman a witch and she is indignant. Call a girl a kitten and she rather likes it; call a woman a cat and she hates you. Women are queer.
If you call a man a gay dog it will flatter him; call him a pup, a hound or a cur and he will try to alter the map of your face. He doesn't mind being called a bull or a bear, yet he will object to being mentioned as a calf or a cub. Men are queer too.

A Troubled Conscience.

"I had a horrible dream last night," said Huddleston when he came down to breakfast the other morning.
"What was it?" asked his wife.
"I dreamed that I was in purgatory and was made to do all the things I had told my friends I would do if I were in their places."—Town and Country.

The Contrary Dog.

"Can dogs find their way home from a distance?" is a question frequently asked. It's according to the dog. If it is one you want to get rid of he can find his way back from Africa. If it is a valuable one he is apt to get lost if he goes round the corner.

Knew the Game.

"Aren't you carrying things with a high hand?"
"Sometimes it's a high hand," answered the South American president, "and then again sometimes it's only a bluff."—Washington Star.

Not Her Custom.

She—And she is to be married for the third time! She hasn't been a widow very long. He—No. She never is a widow very long.—New York Press.

The Ruling Passion.

He (reading)—She wore an air of mystery? She (absently)—How was it trimmed?

All men would be cowards if they durst.—Rochester.

Raising the Hat.

The polite custom of raising the hat to a lady dates back to the days of chivalry, when knights never appeared in public except in armor. On entering the house of a friend, however, or a room in which there were ladies, it became the custom for a knight to remove his helmet as a sign that, being in the presence of friends, he was safe from attack.

Wifely Solicitude.

"Doctor, my husband is dreadfully troubled with sleeplessness. What is good for it?"
"You might try reading him to sleep, madam."
"What would be the use of that, doctor? I try to talk him to sleep every night, and it doesn't do a bit of good."—Chicago Tribune.

A Prescription.

Doctor—I don't think it is anything very serious, but you will have to stay in bed at least two weeks. Patient—Say, doctor, do you know that this is a four dollar a day hotel? Doctor—Yes. I'm a friend of the proprietor.—New York Times.

Furious Fighting.

"For seven years," writes Geo. W. Hoffman, of Harper, Wash., "I had a bitter battle, with chronic stomach and liver trouble, but at last I won and by the use of Electric Bitters. In unhesitatingly recommend them to all, and don't intend in the future to be without them in the house. They are certainly a wonderful medicine, to have cured such a bad case as mine." Sold, under guarantee to do the same for you, by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggist, at 50c. a bottle. Try them today.

Found a Cure for Dyspepsia.

Mrs. S. Lindsay, of Fort William, Ontario, Canada, who was suffering quite a number of years from dyspepsia and great pains in the stomach, was advised by her druggist to take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. She did so and says, "I find that they have done me a great deal of good. I have never had any suffering since I began using them." If troubled with dyspepsia or indigestion why not take these Tablets, get well and stay well? For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.
